

KEY FINDINGS

92% of those living with a neurological disorder feel affected by stigma

Chronic Pain: 100% (80% very much)

Myalgic Encephalomyelitis: 99.6% (74% very much)

Migraine/headache: 96% (58% very much)

ADHD: 91% (49% very much)

Dystonia: 89% (31% very much)

Multiple Sclerosis: 87% (24% very much)

Epilepsy: 86% (27% very much)

Parkinson's Disease: 85% (34% very much)

74% felt they did not receive adequate treatment because a medical professional did not believe the severity of their symptoms.

35% have avoided seeking medical advice because they felt embarrassed.

13% feel people are often unkind to them on account of their condition.

Over 30% have been denied insurance or a mortgage on account of their condition

32% have been made to feel they are inadequate parents

20% feel people avoid them on account of their condition.