

PATIENT INVOLVEMENT IN BRAIN HEALTH: SAFEGUARDING THE FUTURE OF BRAIN HEALTH

12 May 2022 (14.00-16.30)

A virtual event co-organised by
Alzheimer Europe, The European Federation of Neurological Associations (EFNA) and GAMIAN Europe

AGENDA

14.00-14.05	Welcome - Joke Jaarsma, President, EFNA
14.05-14.20	Keynote speech: The impact of patient involvement in research, policy and practice Prof. Guendalina Graffigna, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milan
14.20-14.30	Improving patient involvement in Europe: a call for action Dr. Orla Galvin, EFNA
14.30-15.25	1st Roundtable discussion: What matters most to patients? Involving patients in research prioritisation Moderator: Nigel Olisa, GAMIAN Europe Introduction by patient representative - Helen Rochford-Brennan Responses from: Dr. Georg Starke, École Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne Dr. Stefan Schreck, DG SANTE, European Commission Mr. Frédéric Destrebecq, European Brain Council, Brussels General discussion
15.25-16.20	2nd Roundtable discussion: Improving the way we involve patients in brain health Moderator: Jean Georges, Alzheimer Europe Introduction by patient representative - Erik van der Eycken Responses from: Mr. Agius Saliba, Member European Parliament Ms. Nathalie Bere, European Medicines Agency Prof. Monica di Luca, Dept Pharmacology and Neurodegeneration, University of Milan General discussion
16.20-16.30	Concluding comments and next steps - Joke Jaarsma, EFNA